

DIRECT HIT: A United Airlines aircraft is seen as it is about to fly into the second tower of the World Trade Center. A ball of flames explodes after the plane hits. The first tower is in the foreground. THE ASSOCIATED PRESS IMAGE TAKEN FROM ABC TELEVISION

Under Attack

Bush Vows U.S. Will 'Hunt Down' Terrorists

NEW YORK UNDER ATTACK: Smoke billows over the New York skyline after two planes crashed into the World Trade Center, collapsing the twin 110-story towers. A plane also hit the Pentagon. CHAD RACHMAN/THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Inside

Devastation

Terrorists crash airliners into N.Y. World Trade Center towers, Pentagon hit in massive, unprecedented attack on U.S.; President Bush says terrorism "will not stand."

Page 2

State of confusion

N.M. bases on alert, but FBI says there is no specific danger to state.

Page 4

Shocked, stranded Sunport travelers scramble for news, hotels, rental cars.

Page 5

Second assault

Terrorists tried and failed in 1993 to blow up the symbolic "towers of the West" from below. Today, a terrorist attack — this one from the sky — succeeded.

Page 8

